31 MAY 1944

BIIa - odcinek budowlany IIa (Bauabschnitt IIa)
 Od sierpnia 1943 roku do listopada 1944 roku mieścił się tu obóz kwarantanny (Quarantänlager) dla mężczyzn przywiezionych z różnych krajów (Żydów i nie-Żydów). Celem kwarantanny było sterylizowanie nowo przywiezionych więźniów, wyizolowanie ich od obywateli w obozie rysołów i bezwzględne posłuszeństwo oraz wyszkolenie osób podejrzanych o choroby zakaźne. Od kwietnia 1944 roku do listopada 1944 roku w niektórych barakach umieszczano chorych więźniów i więźniarki przeniesione z innych części obozu.

Compound BIIa (Bauabschnitt IIa)
 This compound functioned as a quarantine camp (Quarantänlager) for men (Jews and non-Jews) from different countries during the period from August 1943 to November 1944. The purpose of quarantining, apart from identifying those who might have infectious diseases, was to terrorize newly arrived concentration camp prisoners and to teach absolute submission to camp discipline. From April to November 1944, sick prisoners from other parts of the camp, both men and women, lived in some of the barracks of this compound.
